

Dan Poynter presents

Flying Statistics

Comparing Aviation Safety with Other Activities

A multimedia show comparing flying statistics with other activities. Dan Poynter weighs skydiving against golf, motorcycle riding, bicycle racing, skateboarding, soaring and many other pursuits. He compares the dangers of tsunamis, lightning, tornados, cold weather and more. This presentation includes numerous video clips of many difficult situations and accidents.

He has shared this program with aviation enthusiasts in Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, the UK, Ireland and the US.

Fascinating and fun.

Dan Poynter is past president of the Parachute Industry Association, past chairman of the Board of the U.S. Parachute Association, past president of the International Hang Gliding Commission and is a trustee of the National Skydiving Museum. He has written more than 120 books; ten on parachutes, skydiving and hang gliding.

A pilot, skydiver and master parachute rigger, this Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) is a frequent speaker at aviation and other events.

S-20 Keynote, Multimedia with video and sound. Humor 70 Minutes.
